

Iron County Register

Entered in the Post Office at Ironton, Mo., as Second Class Matter.

VOLUME XLIX. NUMBER 15.

Ironton, Missouri,
THURSDAY - - - SEPT. 18, 1915.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

A wedding real soon.

Peaches still coming to town.

The summer visitors are leaving.

The supply of winter coal is coming to town.

County court proceedings are printed this week.

An abundance of hickory and hazel nuts this fall.

The apples are better than the earlier ones.

Teachers' Meeting at Goodwater next Saturday.

Ironton needs, and badly needs, some factories.

Read the advertisement of the Piedmont Fair.

Let the granitoid walks be kept clear of dirt and gravel.

Gov. Major at the Piedmont Fair, Thursday, September 23d.

Some summer the past week. Nights unusually hot for September.

Saturday night at The Picture Show, James A. Hearn's favorite drama.

See advertisement of the Style Shop Fall and Winter Millinery Opening.

If you need stenographic work done on short order, call up Lawson Henry, phone 27.

The watermelons this year, as well as the cantaloupes, have not been very good.

We hear of quite a lot of wheat being rendered worthless by the heavy rain in July and August.

Dr. B. F. Crissman, of St. Louis, will preach at the Ironton M. E. Church next Sunday.

For the first time this year there is some dust on Main street. The oil is pretty well gone.

The ice man had a harvest last week. Making up for some of that cold weather in August, perhaps.

Superintendent Hanson is issuing permits for a Teachers' Meeting at Des Arc, Saturday, October 9th.

Married—At the Court House, September 17th, 1915, George Campbell and Mary Polite—all of Cherryville, Mo.

For Sale—Gasoline Engine, in good order; too small for present owner's needs. Apply to WALTER SHULAR, Arcadia, Mo.

Fred Twomey is now living at Bismarck. He tells us that he will soon be doing most of his traveling in an automobile.

Col. R. D. Lewis caught a fifteen-inch croppie in the lake at Mountain View last Thursday evening. Pretty good sized croppie that.

More than 150 tax suits will be on docket for the October term of circuit court. Of this number more than 100 are Murdock-Crumb victims.

In the vicinity of Mungler, west of Ironton, there was a down pour for about an hour last Thursday. No rain anywhere else that we've heard of.

Fall and Winter Millinery Opening at the Style Shop Thursday evening, September 23d, from 8 to 10 o'clock p. m. The ladies will not forget the time.

Jefferson county is talking of bonding for $500,000 wherewith to build roads. Irondale will vote October 1st on a proposition to create a special road district.

Sheriff Blue last Thursday brought us an apple grown in his orchard in Graniteville that measured fourteen inches in diameter and weighed exactly one pound.

Mayfield Huff and Ab Langdon left last Friday for Frisco and other points in the far west. They expect eventually to locate in Tucson, Arizona. Luck to them.

A. J. Sheahan, president of the Sheahan Granite Co., is in Kansas City this week, figuring on a $30,000 paving contract. The granite business is said to be good.

The farm of H. A. Taylor, five miles west of Annapolis, near the Reynolds county line, was sold under a deed of trust Monday. Collector Burnham was the purchaser for $550.

The Prosecuting Attorney calls the attention of all dealers that the sale of hard cider is a violation of the local option law. Those interested will govern themselves accordingly.

The quarterly meeting of the stockholders of the A. J. Sheahan Granite Company was held at the company office in Graniteville Monday morning. The granite business is reported good.

Mr. McLaughrey was in the office one day last week with as fine a basket of wild grapes as we ever saw which he had gathered on Pilot Knob hill. A great season for grapes of all kinds.

Messrs. Wm. Tranericht and A. Roehry contemplate going to St. Louis this afternoon and making an automobile trip to Highland, Ill., with Capt. Geo. J. Tansey and Mr. Kelton E. White.

Mr. Delano gave us some very fine apples last Saturday. The largest weighed one pound and measured fourteen inches round—the exact size of the big apple given us by Sheriff Blue a couple of days previous.

To Judge Wm. Matkin we are indebted for a basket of as fine a lot of Irish potatoes as we ever saw. There were eight of the potatoes and they weighed 7 pounds and ten ounces. He tells us he has a big lot of them.

FOR SALE—Two Mules 7 years old; two horses—one 4, and the other 8 years old. One young colt. Also two cows and calves. Address T. B. PIER, Arcadia. My residence is on Marble Creek, twelve miles south of Ironton.

Recorder Hawkins issued the following marriage licenses the past week:

George Campbell and Mary Polite of St. Francois county.

Chas. Whelan and Pauline Ney of Arcadia.

That great evangelist, Rev. Burke, was in the city Saturday and visited, among others, W. H. Stubbins at the Sturdivant bank. With Rev. Burke were E. C. Tovey, the evangelist singer, who recently had a young woman come all the way from Australia to wed him at Kansas City, and Rev. Burke's son—Cape Girardeau Republican.

All the usual services at the Baptist church in Ironton next Sunday. Pastor Milford Riggs will preach morning and evening. Special music will be rendered by the choir. Other features of interest will characterize the services.

Mrs. N. B. Henry of Arcadia, who is in attendance at the State W. C. T. U. Convention at St. Louis, phones that that body on Tuesday located headquarters for Southeast Missouri on the Methodist Assembly Grounds, Arcadia, Mo.

Thos. Chestman, trainmaster on the Iron Mountain railroad, with headquarters at Poplar Bluff, last week underwent an operation in the Missouri Pacific Hospital, St. Louis, for appendicitis. At last reports he was getting along very well.

The county court last week made an order requiring all those who are delinquent in payment of their interest on school fund loans that unless the same are paid prior to the November term of the court citations will be issued. Everybody take warning.

Every county of the world sends sons and daughters to be made into American citizens. Have you any idea of the process? Read a splendid article in this week's REGISTER. Besides the actual legal requirements it tells you of plans which are expected to give much help to the newcomer.

Gentlemen are more than welcome at any time of day or night to make use of the benches in front of the REGISTER office, but we greatly desire that the others who have been in the habit of congregating there after night and expectorating tobacco juice all over the walk and porch posts seek other quarters.

Miss Kate McNulty and Mrs. Alice Stegman spent last Thursday in Ironton making arrangements for Miss Alice Stegman to enter school at the Ursula Academy. Tuesday morning Alice departed for Ironton to begin her school work. The Ursula Academy is now fully credited at the State University.—De Soto Times.

I want to trade 120 acres of good land. Has been in cultivation. Has no improvements now. Within 12 miles of 60,000 city in Arkansas. On railroad and pike, two miles to station and post office. For house and few acres of ground in or close to Arcadia or Ironton. Address, M. J. C., 2702 N. 24th St., Birmingham, Alabama.

John Longinger, aged 35, a miller by occupation, whose home is at Fourche, Ark., left on a moving train at Irondale Friday evening, September 10th, and lost his right foot. Mrs. Eaton of Bismarck and Yeargain of Irondale amputated between the knee and ankle. It is reported the injured man is doing as well as could be expected and will likely recover.

W. F. Bond, cashier of the Irondale Bank, and George L. Province of Irondale, were in Potosi, Monday. They appeared before the county court and filed a petition, by seventy-four of the best citizens of Concord township, asking for an election for the purpose of organizing the "Irondale Special Road District." County Court has ordered a special election to be held at Irondale, on Friday, October 1st.—Potosi Weekly Independent.

Ohlman Correspondence Ellington Press: "Mr. Ahlman, purchaser of the Ohlman tract, came in with some 30 head of cattle and 125 sheep. The stock arrived in fairly good condition, considering the troubles and delays incident to high waters through which they passed. Mr. Ahlman drove through from Annapolis. The bunch looks good browsing around in that big 900 acre pasture, that a short time ago was part of the 'howling wilderness.' Mr. Ahlman has gone back after more."

County Court last week served the following Petit Jurors to do duty at the October term of Circuit Court:

Flynn Chilton C. J. Newman

Chas. Moten M. D. Blanton

J. H. Crowley B. S. Gregory

Edward Miller David Kendall

Wm. Sutton Andy Sheahan, Jr.

John Kelley John Moore

Eugene Seal A. B. Smith

Wm. Dunn S. B. Reagan

James A. Smith Redmond Black

W. N. Knight A. T. Richards

Pearl Hill Mathew Faulkner

Harry Holland, Jr. Otis Carl

Another recruit by pupils of Miss Marshall was sent last Wednesday evening at her music room. The programme I regret the lack of space which forbids giving it here—was made up of numbers in the advanced grade, and the young aspirants to the "art divine" did themselves proudly in their rendering. About one hundred auditors were in attendance, and all enjoyed the entertainment given them. Miss Irene is an excellent teacher and her proficiency is shown in the unusually rapid advancement of her pupils.

Judges Townsend and Holland of the county court last Wednesday viewed the proposed change of road along Stout's creek, west of town, and readily accepted Mr. R. L. Carley's most liberal offer of a free right-of-way, cash donation of $100 and $100 worth of work provided the change was made. The Graham Farm Company and Messrs. Morris and Summers all graciously gave right-of-way or cash donation for their farms, the county agreeing to build the fencing made necessary by the change. The public spiritedness of these citizens is to be commended.

Th. St. Francis River Land and Iron Syndicate is going to install a 100-ton iron furnace in Butler county, and the orders for the material have been placed. The exact location of this iron furnace will be announced positively within forty-eight hours, being deferred for the present because of matters of purely business character, but which will have no bearing upon the transaction. This big furnace for making charcoal iron is going to be ready for operation inside of one year. If it is possible to get the material in time, and before four years have passed there will be at least 2,500 full fledged men at work in the furnaces—Poplar Bluff Republican.

A new ruling of the postoffice department which went into effect the 1st of September makes it possible for the sender of a parcel post package to insure it for 3 cents if the value is not over $5. The former minimum was 5 cents postage for a valuation up to $5. The maximum valuation is increased to $100 which carries an insurance fee of 25 cents. Another new feature is that the sender of a parcel post package may by paying 1 cent postage be entitled to a receipt from the receiver of the package. For 1 cent extra a small tag is attached to the package which must be signed by the consignee of the mail. The tag is torn off bearing the signature and returned to the sender of the package. This serves as a receipt from the person receiving the mail.

Deputy Sheriff Luther Daniels of Des Arc last Wednesday placed Harmon Taylor in jail here. Until about two months ago Taylor made his home on a farm five miles southwest of Annapolis. About that time he sold some stock on which he had previously given a mortgage and skipped out. About a month after he had left here the officers located Taylor out in Oregon with a son; but he left there and came back to Missouri and Deputy Daniels found him last week at Fruit City, in Reynolds county. As Mr. Daniels was the purchaser of Taylor's stock and was out considerable money on the transaction he was very anxious to apprehend the fugitive. Taylor says he went to his son to try and get him to help him out of his financial troubles.

We understand that Attorney John H. Keith has moved from Centerville to Ironton. Reynolds county has lost a valuable citizen and Iron county has gained one. Mr. Keith sold his law practice to C. R. Wadlow of Centerville. Mr. Keith has made his home in this county since he was grown, having been reared in Ripley county. He taught school for several years; was elected Probate Judge in 1909 during which year he was admitted to the bar. Since then he has engaged in the practice of law altogether and had built up a good practice. He has had experience in the Supreme Court; also the Courts of Appeals of Missouri. He will continue his practice in the courts of this county. The many friends of Mr. Keith and his estimable family are sorry to see them go. We understand that his reason for going to Ironton was because of the better school facilities offered there than in Centerville, and also convenient to the railroad. We wish him success in his new location.—Ellington Press.

School Notes.

The new teachers in the High School this year are: Misses Savannah Duval, Florence Sialer and Mabel Fields.

Miss Duval is a graduate of the Warrensburg State Normal School and has taught in Richmond, Mo., for several years.

Miss Sialer, a graduate of Yeatman High School, of St. Louis, and Washington University, taught in Ada, Oklahoma.

Miss Fields graduated from the Kirksville State Normal and taught in Powersville, Mo., before coming to Ironton.

The enrollment of the grades is two hundred this year, and of the High School, sixty. This is an increase of twelve over last year and the High School quarters are very crowded.

Several new seats were moved into the study hall, and in some of the classes three students must use one desk.

Before school opened Mr. Shoop reclassified all of the books by subjects and appointed Anna Smith Librarian, that the books might be well cared for.

We have twelve tuition students, the greater part of whom are in the High School.

About forty history reference books, which were ordered sometime ago, arrived Monday morning; among them is one entitled, "Division and Reunion," written by Woodrow Wilson while he was President of Princeton.

Arcadia Items.

Louis Miller, Sr., is spending a few days at home while waiting for material with which to proceed with his contract at Piedmont.

Mr. Boardman, after a very short honeymoon trip to New York with his bride, appeared Monday morning at his post in the Bank of Arcadia Valley, smiling at his customers as if nothing very unusual had happened.

Mrs. Lee Davis, following a short illness, received a new installment of books.

Mrs. N. B. Henry has gone to Sikeston as a delegate to the Annual W. C. T. U. convention, where she hopes to be instrumental in securing the location of headquarters for that organization for Southeast Missouri.

After an absence of three weeks, Lawson Henry returned home.

The Duncans and Clarksons closed their Arcadia summer residences Sunday afternoon and returned to St. Louis. They will be missed.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Boardman returned Sunday night from their honeymoon to New York and are now domiciled in one of the Miller bungalows, awaiting the completion of their new home.

Mr. and Mrs. Williams and daughter, Dorothy, of Webster Groves, and the Misses Doty and French of St. Louis, are recent arrivals at Hatten Inn.

The charivari reception tendered Mrs. and Mrs. Boardman Monday evening by Arcadia youngsters would certainly pass muster anywhere. The noise was long, loud and penetrating, and ran the full gamut of the scale.

Fort Hill Church.

Number present at Sunday School, 62; absent, 39; daily Bible readers, 7; remained for church, 21; offering, $2.02.

Increased attendance upon League, and interesting, short service led by Miss Lucile Farrar. Topic for next Sunday, "Spiritual Opportunities and Perils of School Life." Leader, Miss Maude Langdon.

The monthly business meeting and social at Prof. Hanson's was well attended. Miss Vaughan was elected to membership, and Miss Conway's membership was recognized. The Secretary, by unanimous vote, was instructed to attend the M. E. Church League to attend one next social meeting as our guests. The social features were all very interesting, and the "provisions for the inner man" were highly appreciated. The visitors present added no little to the pleasure of the occasion. The next social meeting will be held in October.

The attendance upon both preaching services was better than usual. There remain only two Sabbaths of this conference year. The pastor hopes the members will unite with him in making these two Sunday services the best of the year every way.

Boardman—Davis.

(Fredericktown Democrat-News.)

Wednesday morning at ten o'clock, Miss Jessie Dent Davis and Mr. Albert J. Boardman of Arcadia were married at the home of the bride's parents on College Hill. The ceremony, in which many guests were present, was said by the bride's venerable father in a beautiful and impressive manner.

Only intimate friends of the family were present and after the wedding Mr. and Mrs. Boardman left in their automobile for Arcadia, there to take the train for a honeymoon trip in the east.

The people of Fredericktown have a particularly warm spot in their hearts for Mr. and Mrs. Boardman. The bride was for several years a teacher in the public and high schools here and hundreds of children came under the influence of her beautiful life. She was active in church and society, where she will be sadly missed. Mr. Boardman was for several years cashier in the Bank of Fredericktown here, leaving about three years ago to organize the Arcadia Bank of which institution he is now cashier. He has always been an example of an honorable, courteous, careful business man and was very popular with all he met while here. We are informed he has been even more successful since taking charge of the bank at Arcadia.

Mr. Boardman has just completed a modern seven-room bungalow of red granite stone at Arcadia and there he and his bride will reside after their return from a honeymoon.

The good wishes of hundreds of friends will follow them and desire for them the very best of life's blessings.

For Sale or Trade—One gasoline wire lamp, for house or store, one gasoline range with oven and low burner for wash boiler, one barrel churn, two three burner oil stoves—one new, two Wilson heaters, one iron kettle, one new laundry stove with oven, one new oak wardrobe, one oak hall tree with shoe box and large mirror, one oak book case with writing desk, two center tables with marble tops, six lamps, ice cream freezer, large kitchen cabinet, two iron beds with good springs, one dish cupboard, with glass doors, cabinet and four drawers; also Jensen's.

A. M. PLANTE, Arcadia, Mo.

Des Arc Items.

We are having summer in good style.

Our Holiness Camp Meeting, closed today (Sunday). Quite a crowd attended from Sabula, Annapolis, Piedmont and Brunot. Also Mrs. Geo. W. Scoggins from Glover. There were several converts and some redeemed.

The Holiness College starts next Monday; our public school also starts next Monday, September 13th, under the management of Prof. McKee and his assistant, one of the best instructors in Southeast Missouri. He has taught several terms here.

I was down on the Belmont Branch last week. Business has improved wonderfully down in that section.

I was also through Farmington and the Lead Belt. Business is certainly good there. I was up at Irondale; that is a flourishing little town. Saturday I was at Sabula. C. L. Collins has his hotel completed and the place is doing some fine work on the inside.

While at Annapolis, Mr. Groffman, a land owner there from the East, showed me an old paper, the New York Herald, published April 15th, 1865, the day after Lincoln was assassinated. It certainly was full of exciting news. It spoke pretty rough about the rebel, Jeff Davis.

I was sitting on the porch of the hotel in Charleston last week. I was humming an old war song, "Let me kiss him for his mother," sang by a young southern girl. A man remarked, "that is the first time I have heard that song since the war." I asked him, "What war were you in and what side were you on?" He said he "belonged to the 8th Louisiana Regiment, under Col. McCleve, who was promoted to a General, and killed at Gettysburg, and we spent our first around Yorktown with Southall's Battery." I told him I was on that Battery. He came to me and took my hand and remarked, "I was with you but did not know you." He told me he was Col. Phillips and lived near Malden, Mo., and owns a plantation there. I wrote more than glad to hear this brave and gallant soldier. I learned afterwards that he was very wealthy. While talking about the war I want to say to the old Confederate soldiers that there will be only one more payment of $25 which will be paid about the 1st of October. That takes all of the $200,000 appropriated by our last Legislature. There were 1504 pensioners on the roll and several died since. A few more years and we will pass over the river. May God help us to be ready for the bugle sound, is the prayer of Thos. P. Perry, Col. 5th Va., Cav.

Mrs. Lucetta Heath has three children
